The entire team of the Project Naadir joins the mourning regarding the death of Professor Marieta Dá Mesquita, remarkable teacher of our School, which passed away last Monday. The feeling we have is of a huge loss, both for the Faculty of Architecture as well as for the entire academic community, where she was highly respected, for her work of great depth and rigor.

Finally we want to express our sincere condolences to her family and, also saying our thanks to her, because she shared with us her academic excellence.
